

KINDRED

ShawContract®

Blending that brings together both precision and softness from the world around us, and asks how we transition between the two, is a key influence in today's commercial interiors.

Designed to evoke feeling and personal connection, Kindred offers the designer a solution to celebrate the symbiosis between technological and organic forms.

With five styles that work together or alone, Kindred opens up possibilities for cohesive designs that support connectivity and links to people and places. A choice of styles and scales to support pattern interplay and striking transitions.

Kindred demonstrates growth within a space equivalent to that experienced by those functioning within it. Complexity and movement are underpinned by a feeling of identification. Kindred brings warmth and comfort into any interior.

The subtleties within the colour palette bring an added dimension to this Collection, allowing it to work seamlessly across applications. From neutrals to colour tones, Kindred's diverse palette provides different dimensions.

Colours Rosewood and Apricot bring a new harmony with nature, and a harmony when paired with other styles in the same colour tones.

Transitions using Kindred

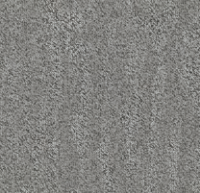

Illusion offers options to be used alone or as a transition tile and can create a ripple like, organic flow. It pairs beautifully with Dream tile to offer impact across the floor.
